City Manager Sonny Campbell explained to the council that based on discussions with various EMS providers, the city can not obtain EMS services for less than $300,000-$500,000 annually, and it would be impossible for the city to bear the expense. After a lengthy council discussion, Leticia Hernandez motioned that due to the lack of funds the City of Anson will not enter into a new EMS contract at the expiration of the current contract and that EMS service for the City of Anson and the surrounding areas will terminate March 31, 2022, at midnight. Misti Seay seconded. All approved.
